Dear Explorers,

Earlier this year, we launched the world's first hybrid electric-powered expedition ship, MS Roald Amundsen. Between this, and her sister ship, MS Fridtjof Nansen, launching in 2020, we are introducing a new era of sustainable expedition cruising. To celebrate this landmark occasion, we invite you to join us on select expedition cruises in 2019, 2020, and 2021 aboard these remarkable ships, and Make History with Amundsen & Nansen!

Inspired by the courage, passion, and vision of explorers Roald Amundsen and Fridtjof Nansen, you can now explore remote, pristine environments under the power of green technology, where battery assistance allows the engines to function at optimal levels, which lowers fuel usage and CO2 emissions by 20%. For the very first time in history, cutting-edge hybrid propulsion will take you to incredible destinations in Antarctica; Alaska; Iceland; Greenland; the Northwest Passage; North, South, and Central America—and beyond!

When you travel with Hurtigruten, you travel with purpose. We know that understanding the local culture, nature, wildlife, and history of the destination you're visiting significantly adds to your adventure; that's why our expedition team members host in-depth lectures and share their specialist knowledge in the Science Center, as well as accompany you ashore and during activities. You'll be immersed in nature in its rawest form, come close to rare wildlife, and learn about the lives and traditions of local communities.

And, if you book by November 30, 2019, you'll save up to 25% and receive up to $500 onboard credit per person on these select voyages!

We'd love to have you join us aboard one of these historic expedition cruises!
